Napster Group PLC
("Napster" of the "Company")

Appointment of Investor Relations Adviser

Napster Group PLC (AIM:NAPS), the global music platform combining music streaming and immersive content, announces the appointment of Equitory as Investor Relations advisor to the Company with immediate effect.

Napster is an iconic brand and Equitory will work with the Company to articulate the exciting long term growth potential of the new Napster Group.

We will be communicating consistently through a variety of channels and, in the coming weeks and months, will be publishing new content to our stakeholders. The management team intends to provide further insight into the strategy of the enlarged group and an update on the launch plan for our next generation music platform which should go live later this year.
